

Jackie Drziak, Chief Compliance Officer

As Chief Compliance Officer, Jackie brings 22 years of consumer reporting experience to Credit Information Systems and to our clients.

Jackie has been a frequent speaker and trainer throughout the industry.

In addition to having worked in CRA Reseller compliance, she has also spent years originating residential mortgages for various national mortgage companies and operated All in Compliance, an industry compliance consulting firm. While managing "AIC", Jackie wrote and marketed a consumer reporting compliance certification program designed to educate and offer certification for industry professionals.

Jackie earned a BS in Marketing from Quinnipiac University. When not working she loves to spend time with her family and enjoys a great love for all animals, big and small.
